Documents

You will need to provide a copy of:

- Your passport
- A copy of your soldier's passport
- A letter from your unit to confirm that your soldier has been working in the country
- Your marriage certificate or proof of a durable relationship. For information about durable partnerships and how to prove them, refer to the webpage <https://aff.org.uk/advice/foreign-commonwealth/eu-nationals/>
- Proof that you have been living together in the country, the address and for how long (this could be included in the unit letter).

Next steps

- You will be able to upload these documents for free on the visa application centre website after you have submitted your application.
- You will then be able to book an appointment at the nearest visa application centre.
- The application is free, however, you will be required to pay for an appointment to have your biometrics taken.
- You will also have to pay if you wish to retain your passport
