

CONNECTED FORCES ONLINE COMMUNITY

A safe and supportive community for 16-19-year-olds from military families.

What's it all about?

Connected Forces is an exciting opportunity for 16-19-year-olds from Armed Forces families to connect informally, support each other and learn together through events and activities. You'll have 1-year access to a free, bespoke, secure online platform, which you can access anytime, anywhere on your phone, tablet or computer.

If you're looking for...

A place to make friends and keep in touch no matter where you are!

Advice from Ambassadors from Armed Forces families who have recent experience of university and who have made the decisions you might be facing

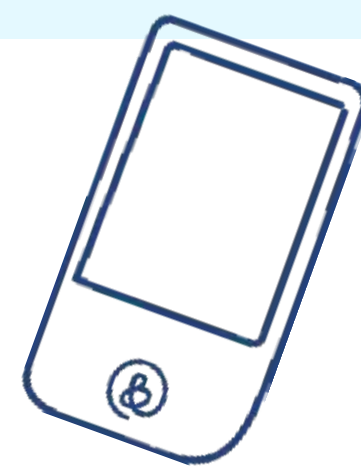

Opportunities to question 'experts' in careers within or outside of the military to support your next steps

Optional competitions, activities and challenges to support your personal development and expand your knowledge

A chance to develop coping skills for dealing with setbacks and overcoming challenges

Want to know more?

Complete an expression of interest form and we will be in touch with further details.

Am I eligible?

You must be 16-19-years-old with a parent/carer who serves in the regular Armed Forces or is a reservist, or has done at any point during your life.

For more information contact:
rachel.lad@winchester.ac.uk