

Supporting ALL to Thrive

Help us understand the educational experiences of children from Armed Forces backgrounds who have additional needs – art workshop

What is the research?

Researchers from Oxford Brookes University are conducting arts-based research exploring the educational experiences of children with additional learning or support needs and/or disability from UK Armed Forces or veteran families.

What would it involve?

Taking part in an informal, small group art workshop at a location convenient to you, to tell us about your child's or your own educational journey. Materials and refreshments will be provided.

Why participate?

- You would help us to understand what is and is not working for children and their families, and the support needed for all children to thrive.
- You would receive a £50 voucher as a thank you for taking part.

Who can participate?

- Parents or carers of a Service child aged 4-18 with additional needs.
- Recent school leavers aged 16-25 who were Service children with additional needs.
- No artistic ability needed!
